Notes on data protection

[1] I agree to the processing and storage of the information listed overleaf in the membership administration of the Ernst Kirsten Society. Furthermore, I agree that the society will forward to me by mail and email information about the activities of the society as well as current information (e.g. about conferences, workshops, exhibitions, etc.) in the field of historical geography. A data transfer to third parties does not take place. I forbid the use of data for further advertising purposes. Upon termination of membership, the personal data must be deleted, unless they must be retained in accordance with legal requirements.

[2] I have been informed that my data will only be used for the purpose of administration, organization and information within the scope of my membership.

[3] I am aware that I have a right to information about my personal data stored by the Ernst Kirsten Society within the framework of the requirements of the Data Protection Regulation (DS-GVO) and the Federal Data Protection Act (BDSG n.F. - DSAnpUG EU). In addition, in the event of incorrect data, I have a right of correction.
