

Venue:

KU Eichstätt-Ingolstadt
Kapuzinergasse 2, KAP-010

Arrival with train:

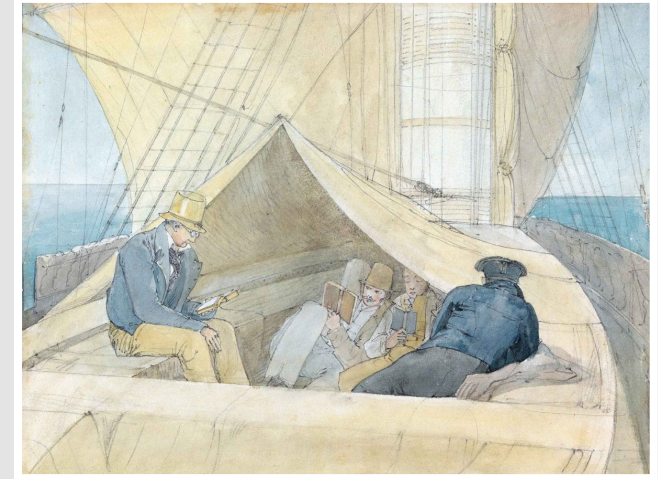

The town of Eichstätt is located between the two Bavarian cities of Munich and Nuremberg. It is connected to these cities by the railway line which spans from the town of Treuchtlingen all the way to the city of Ingolstadt. At the "Eichstätt Bahnhof" station, a further regional train line connects this outer station to the central station of the city of Eichstätt called "Eichstätt Stadt". Please make sure to purchase the correct ticket, all the way to the central station located in the city center: Eichstätt Stadt. When arriving at Eichstätt Bahnhof, make sure to board the smaller train into the city center. Once there, the university and all of its facilities can be reached within 10 minutes of walking distance.

Further information:

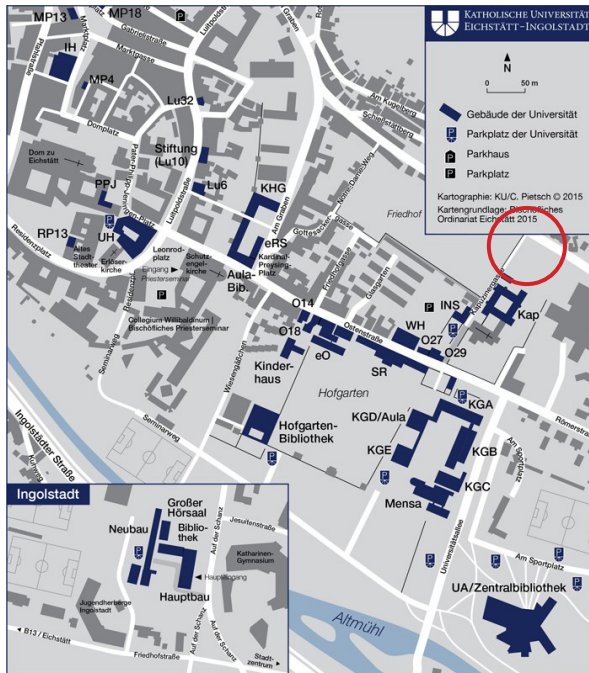

www.ku.de/unsere-ku/campus/anfahrt

Organisation:

Prof. Dr. Thomas Fischer
Katholische Universität Eichstätt-Ingolstadt
th.fischer@ku.de

Spix und Martius an Bord der Fregatte Austria nach Rio de Janeiro 1817,
Drawing by Thomas Ender, © Bibliotheca Nacional, Brasil

BAYLAT

FAPESP

Workshop FAPESP/BAYLAT:

FROM BAVARIA/GERMANY TO SÃO PAULO/BRAZIL:

THE MAKING OF SCIENCE, ARTS, AND KNOWLEDGE IN AN ENTANGLEMENT PERSPECTIVE

October 7th–11th, 2019

Program

Program

Program

October 7th (Monday)

- 9.00 Registration
- 10.00–10.45 Opening ceremony
José Mauro Da Fonseca Costa Couto (Consul General of Brazil)
Dr. Irma de Melo-Reiners (Director BAYLAT)
- 10.45–13.45 Get together
- 15.00–15.15 Greetings from Prof. Dr. Gabriele Gien, President KU
- 15.15–16.15 Opening Conference
Dr. Nelson Chacón, Prof. Dr. Thomas Fischer,
Prof. Dr. Karen Macknow Lisboa
The Scramble for Nature: European Scientists in Brazil in the first half of the nineteenth century
- 16.30–18.30 Session 1: Entanglement and transfer of ideas, knowledge and concepts
 Chair: Prof. Dr. Peter Mainka (University of Würzburg)
 Mediator: Prof. Dr. Iris Kantor (USP)
- Sarah Strömel (University of Regensburg)
Between populism, despotism and individualism: Alexis de Tocqueville on contemporary questions in Brazilian and German society
- William Funke (University of Regensburg)
Between regionalization and centralization: the interwar period in Bavaria and São Paulo as a signpost to national citizenship
- Dr. Thomas Kestler (University of Würzburg)
The rise of the Workers' Party in São Paulo: structural and ideational links to Germany
- Leonardo Pascuti (KU)
Nie Wieder: The Circulation of Holocaust Knowledge as an Imperative of Historical Awareness and Human Rights in Brazil (1974–1989)

October 8th (Tuesday)

- 9.30–12.30 Session 2: Travel, materiality and circulation of objects
 Chair: Prof. Dr. Iris Kantor (USP)
 Mediator: Prof. Dr. Karlfriedrich Herb (University of Regensburg)
- Christiane Hoth (KU)
A bridge between Bavaria and Brazil: Amélie von Leuchtenberg, her material inheritance and her reception (1829–2019)
- Mariana Bussab Porto da Rocha (ESPM)
The German consumption of Afro-American capoeira: a cultural affair
- Lucas Löff Machado / Angélica Prediger (KU)
Linguistic and ethnographic aspects of potatoes in daily life of German-speaking communities in Brazil
- Klency de Brito Yang (Unifesp)
The art school of Benedictine Beuron: a new visual language for Brazil

October 8th (Tuesday)

- 14.00–16.00 Session 3: Travels and Migration – images and representations
 Chair: Prof. Dr. Roland Schmidt-Riese (KU)
 Mediator: Prof. Dr. Karen Macknow Lisboa (USP)
- José Rogério Beier (USP)
House, farm and factory: the importance of the spaces for circulation of geographic knowledge in Brazil, 1802–1829
- André Bailão (USP)
From Bavaria to Brazil and back: travel iconography, tropical landscapes, and the images of the Brazilian savanna
- Dr. des. Sergej Gordon (KU)
Upheaval in Arcadia – traces of Bavarian Jesuits in Brazil and the aftermath of the Jesuit Missions in eighteenth-century Brazilian Literature
- Diego Amorim Grola (USP)
Scientific objects between Brazil and Germany
- 16.30–18.00 Conference
Prof. Dr. em. Gerd Kohlhepp
Brazilian Amazonia. Conflicts between regional policy, economic interests, rain forest protection and space for living of the indigenous people since the 1970s

October 9th (Wednesday)

- 9.30–12.30 Session 4: Technological transfer, transculturation, network construction
 Chair: Prof. Dr. Thomas Fischer (KU)
 Mediator: Prof. Dr. Gildo Magalhães Santos (USP)
- Celso Aluísio Graminha (Unicamp)
The Guarani Aquifer transnational system: linking knowledge between São Paulo and Bavaria
- Alexandre Ricardi (USP)
Financial capitalism and technology in sharing and seizing markets: a case study of importation of electrical equipment in Brazil
- Raiany Souza de Oliveira (USP)
Germanic Presence in the Erstwhile Faculty of Philosophy, Sciences, and Letters of the University of São Paulo, 1934–1959
- Patricia Aranha (USP)
German approaches to the last frontier: scientific research, geographical imagination and mapping processes in the region of the rivers Negro, Branco, and their tributaries
- 14.00–15.00 Session 5: Technological transfer, transculturation, network construction
 Chair: Prof. Dr. Karen Macknow Lisboa (USP)
 Mediator: Prof. Dr. Gildo Magalhães Santos (USP)
- Aníbal Martinot Chaim (USP)
Under State control: the path of sports nationalization under Getúlio Vargas

October 9th (Wednesday)

- Dayana Formiga (USP)
The German influence on the Brazilian agricultural schools: Friedrich Gustav Brieger's role in genetics at Luiz de Queiroz College of Agriculture, 1936–1977
- 15.00–15.30 Conference
Prof. Dr. Vanete Dutra-Dezman (USP)
„Here comes our food!“ - Hans Staden, the martyr (according to Avé-Lallemant) in the land of the naked and cannibal savages, book presentation
- 16.00–18.00 Conference
Prof. Dr. Karlfriedrich Herb / Prof. Dr. Gerson Brea (University of Regensburg)
Not grounded. Vilém Flusser in São Paulo
- Prof. Dr. Gildo Magalhães Santos (USP)
Science and technology: An overview of entangled German encounters with Brazil

October 10th (Thursday)

- 9.30–10.30 Concluding Conference
Prof. Dr. Iris Kantor (USP)
German Statistical Cartography in the Formation of Brazilian geologists and mines engineers (1822–1922)
- 10.30–11.30 Discussion and evaluation on opportunities for research collaboration between the Free State of Bavaria and the State of São Paulo
 All participants
 Mediator: Prof. Dr. Gildo Magalhães Santos (USP)
- 12.00–13.30 Round Table – Conclusions and Further Activities (publication of results, research project, divulgation of results)
Prof. Dr. Gildo Magalhães Santos (USP)
Prof. Dr. Thomas Fischer (KU)
Prof. Dr. Karen Macknow Lisboa (USP)
Prof. Dr. Iris Kantor (USP)
Prof. Karlfriedrich Herb (University of Regensburg)
Prof. Dr. Peter Mainka (University of Würzburg)

Oct 11th & 12th

- 8.00–22.00 Excursion to Munich
Museum Fünf Kontinente (Dr. Gabriele Herzog-Schröder)
Englischer Garten, Chinesischer Turm
Botanisches Staatsmuseum (Prof. Dr. Susanne Renner)
- 9.00–12.00 Historical buildings and landscapes of Eichstätt
 (Christiane Hoth)