About us

The Chair of Christian Social Ethics and Social Policy researches ethical issues in business and society with a special focus on business ethics, corporate sustainability, sustainable entrepreneurship and social innovation. Innovative teaching and research formats are developed in an interdisciplinary environment, including with international partner universities such as Santa Clara University in Silicon Valley, Assumption University in Bangkok and the Catholic University of Buenos Aires.

Your contribution to research and teaching

As a research assistant at the Chair of Christian Social Ethics and Social Policy, you will have the opportunity to play an active role in research and teaching. You will help shape courses in the areas of business ethics, sustainable entrepreneurship and social innovation and support students in their academic work. You will also be involved in service/action learning projects and work closely with the Social Impact Start-up Academy (SISTAC). Collaboration with international partner universities - including Santa Clara University, Assumption University and the Catholic University of Buenos Aires - opens up exciting research and networking opportunities for you.

You will also support conferences and events with regional and international stakeholders and take on tasks in academic self-administration.

Your profile

We are looking for a committed individual with a very good degree in economics who has a keen interest in social innovation, sustainable entrepreneurship and business ethics. Ideally, you have strong organizational and intercultural communication skills, are confident in using MS Office and have a very good command of English; knowledge of German is an advantage.

Our offer

We offer you a fixed-term position for three years, with the option of an extension. You can expect a flexible and team-oriented working environment in which you can advance your research and network internationally. We will actively support you in your doctorate and offer you a wide range of opportunities for further training and professional development. The KU also offers attractive public service welfare and social benefits as well as structured support for young academics.

Your application

Please send your detailed application with the usual documents by e-mail to sekretariat-habisch@ku.de (please send all documents in one PDF file).

Please note the KU's privacy policy for the application process. Corresponding information can be downloaded from the KU website at <https://www.ku.de/en/the-ku/job-offers> . By submitting your application, you confirm that you have taken note of the data protection information and the privacy policy. All employees are obliged to acknowledge the nature and mission of the KU as stipulated in its Mission Statement and Foundation Charter. The University is therefore interested in receiving applications with relevant information in this regard. The KU is committed to promoting equal opportunity, and aims to ensure that its members are able to balance work and family life. Candidates with severe disabilities who are equally suitable to other applicants will be prioritized.
