

WFI Consulting Badge - The additional study program for prospective management consultants

The WFI Consulting Badge is a specially developed additional study program at the WFI - Ingolstadt School of Management that prepares Master's students specifically for a career in management consulting. Through a combination of specialized courses, micro-credentials and exclusive networking events, the program offers valuable insights into the industry and enables direct exchange with leading consulting firms such as Bain & Company, Deloitte, Bearing Point, Simon-Kucher and Capgemini. A significant step for the program was recently achieved with the founding of the official advisory board as a non-profit association. The aim of the advisory board is to ensure a regular exchange with practitioners and to align the additional studies with the current requirements of the job market.

The program at a glance

The WFI Consulting Badge is a co-curricular additional certificate that can be completed over a period of three semesters parallel to the regular Master's program. Students benefit from:

- Subject-specific courses that specifically prepare them for the challenges of the consulting industry
- Practical micro-credentials, developed in collaboration with leading consulting firms
- Exclusive networking events to establish contacts in the industry at an early stage

The program is aimed at committed, team-oriented and determined WFI Master's students who want to set their career course towards consulting at an early stage.

Apply now - application phase for the summer semester 2025 started!

After a successful start, the WFI Consulting Badge is entering the next round. The application phase for the summer semester 2025 has begun - a unique opportunity to register for this exclusive additional study program and secure valuable advantages for a career in management consulting.

Register for the selection interview by sending a short e-mail to:
johannes.kellner@ku.de.