

The Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt (KU) is a non-state university under church leadership and officially recognized by the Free State of Bavaria. It is committed to strong research and excellent teaching and combines first-class study conditions with an international focus. Eight faculties offer a wide range of subjects for around 5,000 students. The University employs 900 people of different faiths and beliefs. Grounded in the Christian view of human life, the KU aims to create an academic and educational culture of responsibility.

The Chair of Civil Law, German and International Commercial and Business Law at our Ingolstadt School of Management invites applications for a part-time position (up to 75%) as research associate (Wissenschaftlicher Mitarbeiter (m/w/d))

to be filled by the earliest possible starting date, initially for a limited period of two years. The place of work will be Ingolstadt. Provided that the requirements are met, remuneration in the private-law employment relationship will be according to the pay grade E 13 TV-L. The successful candidate will have the opportunity to complete a doctoral degree.

Your responsibilities

- Participation in the conceptualization and implementation of courses
- Support for domestic and foreign cooperations
- Supervision of qualification papers (BA, MA)
- Research work, possibly with preparation of an independent doctoral thesis project
- Participation in the self-administration of the Chair

Your profile

- At least a state examination in law with an above-average result (must be completed when starting the position)
- Special interest and expertise in European and international corporate, capital market and company law, commercial and tax law and business law, in comparative law and sustainable financing, valuation (accounting, auditing) and company management (corporate governance, sustainability, compliance)
- Proficiency in German and English (and possibly another language)
- Strong interest in scientific work and teaching in a team

Our offer

- Attractive field of work and varied range of tasks with individual development opportunities and possibility to pursue doctoral studies
- Promising research projects as well as internal and external training and networking opportunities in the university sector, society and practice internationally
- Welfare benefits in the public service

Your application

Please send your application with the usual supporting documents by e-mail to Prof. Dr. jur. habil. Claus Luttermann (Claus.Luttermann@ku.de) by May 20, 2025 (please combine all documents in one PDF file). All submitted application documents will be destroyed in accordance with data protection regulations after the hiring process has been completed.

Please note the KU's privacy policy for the application process. Corresponding information can be downloaded from the KU website at <https://www.ku.de/en/the-ku/job-offers>. By submitting your application, you confirm that you have taken note of the data protection information and the privacy policy.

All employees are obliged to acknowledge the nature and mission of the KU as stipulated in its Mission Statement and Foundation Charter. The University is therefore interested in receiving applications with relevant information in this regard. Other than that, there are no denominational requirements for employment at the KU.

The KU is committed to promoting equal opportunities and aims to ensure that its members are able to balance work and family life. Candidates with severe disabilities who are equally suitable to other applicants will be prioritized.