Dates for registration for examinations and publication of grades in the 2020 summer semester

University degree programs
- without sports examinations
  - June 29 – July 13, 2020

Registration period for all examination types
- for in-semester examinations that are offered as regular (e.g. seminar, written assignment, presentation, portfolio).
- for end-of-semester examinations of the first regular examination period (oral examinations and/or written examinations at the end of the semester, also when they have to be postponed)
- for alternatively offered examination types* in the 2020 summer semester

Withdrawal
- Withdrawal from the final written examinations can be made in KU.Campus up to 6 working days before the examination is taken.
- Withdrawal from an alternatively offered examination format depends on the type of examination. The above-mentioned withdrawal regulations shall apply for final examinations.

Students can withdraw from a regular or alternative in-semester examination by July 13, 2020, if the student has not already taken the examination before that date.

- If examinations are held before the registration period, a student is deemed to be registered for the examination when taking it. Still, technical registration for the examination must be effected by the student during the above-mentioned registration period.

The following special regulation shall apply for block courses that only start after expiry of the regular registration period:
- The period for registering or de-registering begins upon the start of the first block course and ends 14 days after the first block course.

Fachhochschule (FH) degree programs
- with sports examinations
  - Currently, it is not possible to plan the dates for the sports examinations. The new dates will be published as soon as possible.

Withdrawal
- Withdrawal from the written examinations, the in-semester examinations (module examination Lehrversuch Sport (demonstration lesson physical education)) and the practical sports examinations can be made in KU.Campus up to 6 working days before the examination is taken.

The examination schedule will be published on the Examination Office’s website for the respective degree programs.

Special regulations in the 2020 summer semester due to limitations caused by the coronavirus

- Due to limitations caused by the coronavirus, another alternative examination type* can be offered instead of a face-to-face examination requiring students’ attendance on campus (e.g. written examination, oral examination).
- If an alternative examination type is offered, the respectively relevant information is included in the comment field of the registration process for the examination in KU.Campus.
- The respectively responsible examiners shall decide whether it is possible to offer an alternative examination type or whether the on-campus examination is postponed.

- If it is not possible to hold examinations in an alternative format, the examination is postponed to a later date. The registration will in this case be valid for the postponed examination. The date of the postponed examination will be communicated to all registered students by the examiner in writing and be stated for the respective examination in KU.Campus as soon as examinations at the KU can be held again.
| Entry of grades for end-of-semester examinations in the first examination period immediately after completion of examinations, at the latest by September 13, 2020. | Entry of grades for the first examination period immediately after completion of the examinations, (expectedly) by September 13, 2020, at the latest. | Entry of grades for all examinations immediately after completion of the examinations. |

| Conditions for participation in examinations | Students may not participate in an examination that they have not registered for in time. If students failed to register for an examination for reasons beyond their control, they can file an informal application for late registration stating the title of the examination and the examination module number. The application must be justified and submitted to the board of examiners of the respective degree program or Fachhochschule degree program. Students must provide proof for the justification as to why they failed to register in time. The Examinations Office will notify the students of the decision taken by the respectively responsible board of examiners by e-mail to their KU e-mail address. If students are unable to take a module examination because they failed to register in time, this can result in a self-imposed extension of their course of study of up to two semesters. |
| Conditions for registration for the second regular examination period for end-of-semester examinations (oral examinations and/or written examinations at the end of the semester) Withdrawal from the final written examinations can be made in KU.Campus up to 6 working days before the examination is taken.
