Module title | Historical Peace and Conflict Studies I
---|---
Module title in German | Historical Peace and Conflict Studies I
---|---
Level of qualification/ degree program hosting the module | Master’s module: MA Conflict, Memory and Peace
---|---
Module number | [to be assigned by the examination board]
---|---
Responsible faculty | Faculty of History and Social Sciences (GFF)
---|---
Module coordinator | Prof. Dr. Friedrich Kießling
---|---
Credit points (ECTS credits) | 5
---|---
Learning outcomes | After attending this module, the students will have developed an historiographical awareness for questions and issues concerning the afterlife of conflicts.
---|---
Content / topics | Out of a historical perspective, this module will deal with processes of collective remembrance which always trigger debates in the aftermath of conflicts. Besides official and/or professional memory producers, popular culture has proved to be a crucial provider of memory narratives. Therefore, the project seminar will focus on products of popular culture as central sources of contemporary history.
---|---
Formal requirements for participation |
---|---
Teaching and examination language | English
---|---
Teaching methods/ course types | Project seminar and/or workshops (2 hours per week), if applicable as block seminar; independent project work (3 hours per week)
---|---
ECTS awarding criteria | Assessment in form of development of a concept graded at least with "sufficient"
---|---
Workload/Distribution of ECTS credits | - Active participation in course (LV) and/or development of contents: 1 ECTS
- Active project work: 3 ECTS
- Preparation of assessment: 1 ECTS
---|---
Module grade | Development of a concept (8-10 pages)
---|---
Applicability to other degree programs / course admittance | Applicability to other degree programs on course level: Receiving module of courses from advanced practice module: History in Film, Theater, Literature and New Media
---|---
Course rotation | Winter semester
---|---
Subjects involved | Modern and Contemporary History
---|---
Remarks | Required module