

Migration Studies Summer Academy 2020: An International Webinar

Wednesday, 15 July 2020

9:00-11:00 a.m. ET / 15:00-17:00 CET

The Migration Studies Summer Academy (MSSA) 2020 will highlight developments in international research on migration at The Catholic University of America and Katholische Universität Eichstätt-Ingolstadt. MSSA is part of a global research initiative to advance collaborations and science among an international group of Catholic universities.

Webinar Schedule

9:00 - 9:15

Welcome from both universities and description of international MSSA initiative

- CUA: Professor Sandra Barrueco, Professor of Psychology & Director of Latino American and Latino Studies: Welcome & Developments in Migration Studies and Global Endeavors
- KU: Professor Karin Scherschel, Head of the Center for Flight and Migration: The Center for Flight and Migration: Main Areas and Some Notes on Activities

9:15 - 10:00

Faculty/Graduate Student Symposium Presentation on Migration Research from Catholic University, with discussant response from KU

- Professor Stacy Brustin, Professor of Law: U.S.-Based Pro Se Clinics in Mexico -- Filling the Due Process Void or Fighting a Losing Battle?
- Professor Julia Young, Associate Professor of History, The Migration-Deportation Cycle: A Century of Mexican Migration to the United States

10:00 - 10:45

Faculty/Graduate Student Symposium Presentation on Migration Research from KU, with discussant response from Catholic University

- Lea Gelardi, M.A., Research Assistant: (In)Visible and (Im)Permeable Bordering Practices
- Lisa Vischer and Aurelia Starringer, students in the “Flight, Migration, Society” M.A. program: Insights into Two Student Projects: Prison Paper of Eichstätt and the Initial Reception Centre

10:45 - 11:00

Wrap up and looking ahead to 2021

- CUA: Professor Aaron Dominguez, Provost
- KU: Elisabeth Beck, M.A., Research Assistant

Register for the webinar here.

Participation instructions will be emailed to you upon registration.