

Migration Studies Summer Academy 2021

An International Online Seminar

Friday, 5 November 2021

15:00-17:00 CET / 9:00-11:00 a.m. ET

The Migration Studies Summer Academy (MSSA) highlights current research on migration at Katholische Universität Eichstätt-Ingolstadt (KU) and The Catholic University of America (CUA). By developing collaborations between Catholic universities and providing expertise among faculty and graduate students, the MSSA advances international research in migration studies.

The program includes professors' and research assistants' presentations across the fields of Economics, Communication Science, and Sociology from both Katholische Universität Eichstätt-Ingolstadt and The Catholic University of America.

Students and faculty are warmly invited to attend. Please register for the online seminar via e-mail to zfm-sekretariat@ku.de. Please indicate your name, institution, and position at your respective university. Upon registration, we will send you the participation instructions.

Online Seminar Schedule

15:00-15:15 CET / 09:00-09:15 a.m. ET

Welcome from both universities and presentation of international MSSA initiative

KU: Professor Karin Scherschel, Head of the Center for Flight and Migration: The Center for Flight and Migration: Research Areas and Some Notes on Activities

CUA: Professor Sandra Barrueco, Professor of Psychology & Director of Latino American and Latino Studies: Welcome & Developments in Migration Studies and Global Endeavors

15:15-16:00 CET / 09:15-10:00 a.m. ET

Faculty Symposium Presentations from KU, with discussant response from CUA

Melanie Schmitt, M.A., Research Assistant at the Center for Flight and Migration: Sexual Educators as Political Actors – Challenges of Sexual Education and Perspectives of Intersectional Concepts in the Context of Forced Migration

Dr. Tanja Evers, Research Assistant at the Center for Flight and Migration: Diversity as Journalistic Self-Perception – Media Integration Function in a Digital Migration Society

Marina Mayer, Dipl.-Soz., Research Assistant at the Center for Flight and Migration: German Racism(s) – Conceptual Implications in a Post-Colonial and Post-National-Socialist Society

16:00-16:45 CET / 10:00-10:45 a.m. ET

Faculty Symposium Presentations from CUA, with discussant response from KU

Maria Sophia Aguirre, Ph.D., Ordinary Professor of Economics: The Home and Displaced People: How Can a Fuller Understanding of Home Inform Approaches to Migration and Support of Displaced People

Martha C. Cruz Zuniga, Ph.D., Clinical Associate Professor and Chair of Economics: African Migrants in the US and the Catholic Church Accompaniment

16:45-17:00 CET / 10:45-11:00 a.m. ET

Wrap up and looking ahead to 2022

CUA: Professor Sandra Barrueco, Professor of Psychology & Director of Latino American and Latino Studies

KU: Elisabeth Beck, M.A., Research Assistant at the Center for Flight and Migration