

The Center for Flight and Migration Eichstätt-Ingolstadt

The Center for Flight and Migration at the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt teaches students job-related and intercultural skills, supports refugees by offering them educational opportunities, provides lecturers with a platform, and promotes dialogue between research, teaching, and practice. Its work is divided into three main areas: research; education & coaching; and dialogue & transfer.

Research

The Center for Flight and Migration coordinates research activities at the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt, supports research projects, and initiates collaborations.

Education & Coaching

The Center for Flight and Migration designs courses that contribute to the University's unique profile and develops educational concepts with a focus on flight and migration. It supports prospective students who have experienced flight.

Dialogue & Transfer

The Center for Flight and Migration offers a wide range of academic and cultural events, and promotes dialogue between different cultures, nationalities, and faiths.
