

Central facilities

The Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt has eight central facilities that provide services for the whole University and help create an excellent working environment for students and researchers at the KU.

University Library

Users of the University Library have access to around 2 million books, 3300 journal and magazine subscriptions, and thousands of handwritten manuscripts and early printed books. More...

University Computer Center

The University Computer Center operates the comprehensive network infrastructure on the campuses in Eichstätt and Ingolstadt, which includes the servers as well as 8 computer pools with over 150 workstations. More...

Research: central institutes and research centers

ZFG, ZILAS, ZIMOS, Floodplain Institute Neuburg, Research Center for Oriental Christianity, Research Center for Medieval Religious Literature, Simon Mayr Research Center. More...

The Research Service Center (ZFF) is the point of contact for all questions related to research activities at the KU, research funding opportunities, and promoting young researchers. More...

The Center for Teacher Education (ZLB.KU) coordinates and develops teacher education in collaboration with the faculties and the University Administration. It supports students who are enrolled in the KU's teaching degree program. More...

The Center for Interdisciplinary Flight and Migration Studies (F&M) coordinates current projects in research and teaching, as well as practical work with refugees, and acts as a communication platform for experts and interested laypeople. More...

University Sports Center

From A for aerobics to Z for zumba, the University Sports Center offers students in Eichstätt and Ingolstadt over 120 courses in a wide range of sports. More...

Language Center

The Language Center is responsible for foreign language teaching for students of philology and also offers language courses for students of all degree programs. More..

University Administration

Human Resources, Finance, Facility Management, Study Organization, Legal Affairs.

More...

Academic continuing education

Information on academic continuing education at the KU, introduction of project and coordination office. More...

University Archive

The University Archive takes care of all material that is passed on by the University's committees, faculties, and administration for archiving. More information in German...

Canteen

Our canteen and cafeteria are located just behind the Main Building complex and offer both small snacks and three different hot meals each day. More...