

Archives

Donnerstag, 28. März 2019

Bright prospects for mailmen: how algorithms render logistics more efficient

Nowadays, customers who order their products online or have gotten used to well-stocked shelves in the supermarkets tend to forget that these conveniences always take a great deal of planning and logistics. “The greatest possible...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

---

Montag, 25. März 2019

Historian investigates introduction of uniform time system in German Empire

The EU-wide debate regarding the abolition of daylight saving time clearly shows: Determining time by law alone is not enough – it must also be accepted and actually used by people in their everyday life. Currently, the historian...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

---

Montag, 18. März 2019

Religion and sustainable development

In 2015, the member states of the United Nations agreed on common global objectives for a sustainable development which they committed to reach by 2030. Now, an international conference at the Vatican dealt with the topic of...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

---

Donnerstag, 14. März 2019

WFI students develop management solutions for international social entrepreneurs

Developing forward-looking ideas in order to improve the lives of millions of people – this is the objective of a group of international social entrepreneurs who are supported in their work by students of the KU Ingolstadt School...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

---

Donnerstag, 07. März 2019

Finding a new post-crisis balance: resilience in the tourism industry

How can touristic regions deal with crises and dynamic change without incurring long-term damage, and maybe even emerge from a crisis stronger? This question is currently investigated by Daniel Zacher, team member at the Chair of...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

---

Mittwoch, 27. Februar 2019

KU first German university to be awarded “EMASplus” certificate

The KU is the first university in Germany which has been awarded with the “EMASplus” certificate. This award honors institutions which establish a holistic sustainability management that takes into account ecological, social and...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

---

Montag, 25. Februar 2019

Nationwide study quality monitor: excellent study conditions at the KU

Seen in a national comparison, KU students are significantly more satisfied with their studies than fellow students at other universities. They particularly praise teaching commitment, close contact among the students, an...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

Donnerstag, 21. Februar 2019

New Master's program in Taxation offers interdisciplinary perspectives

The KU's new Master's degree program in Taxation which will be launched in this year's winter semester at its business and economics faculty in Ingolstadt (WFI) offers specialized training in the field of taxation. The...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

Mittwoch, 20. Februar 2019

Fight against human trafficking: KU expert participates in EU project

How can we help those who have become victims of human trafficking? This is the question that Simon Kolbe, research associate in the "Inclusion" research association at the KU, deals with in the context of the EU project aimed at...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

Montag, 11. Februar 2019

KU among top universities in Germany

According to the current ranking of the 2019 most popular universities in Germany published by the portal Studycheck.de, the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt (KU) ranks place eight among the top ten best rated...[\[mehr\]](#)

---

---

Treffer 1 bis 10 von 70

<< Erste < Vorherige 1-10 11-20 21-30 31-40 41-50 51-60 61-70 Nächste >
Letzte >>