

Educational offer at the LSR

On the following pages you have the opportunity to find out more about the lectures offered by the chair in detail:

- Bachelor: Here you will find all information about the extensive range of courses offered by the chair within the Bachelor degree program. In addition, students will find here all documents for the courses of the chair.
You will also find more information about the content and contact persons of the major "Business & Psychology", which is coordinated by the chair.
- Master: Here you will find all the information about the extensive course offer of the chair within the framework of the Master degree program. In addition, students will find here all the documents for the courses.
- Thesis: Here you will find important information about the requirements for students who want to write their bachelor thesis or master thesis at our chair.
- Business as a minor: Here you will find information about courses offered by the chair for students of other faculties of the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt joining a minor in business administration.
- Expertise: Here you will find important information on the preparation of reports at our chair.
- International recognition: Here you will find important information on recognition of services provided abroad at our chair.