Hans-Martin Zademach is Professor of Economic Geography at the Catholic University of Eichstätt-Ingolstadt since 2009. Prior he was appointed at the University of Munich and visiting scholar at the University of Prague, the Copenhagen Business School and the London School of Economics. He holds a Master of Science in Local Economic Development from LSE (2001) as well as a Master of Business Research (2004) and a doctorate degree (Dr. oec. publ., 2005) from the University of Munich. In his research, he is interested in questions of (strong) sustainable regional development with a particular emphasis on international corporate and financial relations. Recent publications include an introductory textbook into financial geographies (in German) and the co-edited volume 'Alternative Economies and Spaces. New Perspectives for a Sustainable Economy'.
